Continuing Review Form General Approval

Form 4.31E (3/16/03)

IRC granted you a General Approval for purposes of submitting your grant application. The approval contained a condition that no human research activity could be initiated until an appropriate IRB reviewed it. It has been one year and IRC wishes to have an update on the grant activity.

APPROVAL

On the basis of the information presented here or attached to this form, the general approval can be continued for another approval period. No subjects may be involved without specific approval
